Description

Nestled within the grounds of a magnificent neoclassical mansion, this exquisite first floor duplex apartment is a sight to behold. Accessible through the original wrought iron gates, now operated electronically via an intercom system, the entrance to the property is truly impressive. As you enter the grounds, a breath taking arch leads you into the central courtyard, where residents and guests can park their vehicles in allocated spaces.

The meticulously maintained grounds are exclusively for the enjoyment of the residents and their visitors, offering stunning views of the picturesque lower Wye Valley and beyond.

Inside the apartment, you will find a truly remarkable open plan living and dining area. Adjacent to this area is the generously sized kitchen breakfast room, complete with integrated appliances. There is also a separate, spacious utility room and ground floor W.C. on this floor.

A hallway, from the living/dining area, leads to a charming staircase, guiding you to the first floor landing. On this level, you will discover two generously proportioned double bedrooms and a stunning four-piece bathroom. To truly appreciate this apartment and the accommodation it offers, a viewing is an absolute must.

Situated just off Welsh Street, The Mount boasts an enviable location in close proximity to the town centre. Residents can easily access a wide range of amenities, as well as excellent bus and rail services. Additionally, the nearby motorway networks provides convenient commuting options to Newport, Cardiff, Bristol, Gloucester, and Cheltenham.
