Description

This stylish residence offers ample living space over three floors. The ground floor welcomes you with a spacious reception hall that leads into a superb open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area equipped with fully integrated appliances. French doors from the dining/living space open out to a beautifully landscaped rear garden. The ground floor features elegant tiled flooring with zoned underfloor electric heating, complemented by traditional radiators. This level also includes a flexible area that can serve as either a study or a fourth bedroom, along with a convenient W.C.

On the first floor, you'll find the primary bedroom complete with an en-suite shower room, as well as a cosy living room. The second floor houses two double bedrooms, a well-equipped family bathroom, and additional zoned tiled underfloor heating alongside radiators.

Outside, the property boasts a picturesque view of the stunning plaza at the front and an attractively landscaped rear garden, while a driveway offers parking for two vehicles.

Located just a short distance from the town centre, all the amenities and attractions of a bustling town are easily accessible by foot. Chepstow Castle, the oldest surviving post-Roman stone fortress in Britain, is a prominent landmark in the area. Chepstow is often referred to as the gateway to the stunning Wye Valley, renowned for its outstanding natural beauty. Outdoor enthusiasts will find plenty of activities nearby, including hiking trails and the picturesque Forest of Dean. The town boasts a variety of cafes, bars, bistros, and restaurants, as well as charming independent shops. Families will appreciate the proximity to good junior and comprehensive schools, while commuters will benefit from excellent transportation links via bus and rail. The A48, M4, M48, and M5 networks provide easy access to neighbouring cities such as Newport, Cardiff, Bristol, Gloucester, and Cheltenham for those who work in these areas.
