Description

Introducing this generously sized semi-detached four-bedroom home, now available on the open market with no onward chain. The home features a warm and inviting entrance hall, a spacious kitchen-dining area complete with a utility space, a sizeable living room, and a convenient ground floor W.C. Moving to the first floor, you will find four well-proportioned bedrooms along with a family bathroom. Exterior highlights include solar panels, level gardens at both the front and rear, as well as off-road parking accessible from the back of the property. While the home does require some updating, this offers a fantastic opportunity for buyers to personalise and truly make it their own.

Local amenities can be found nearby. The market town of Chepstow is also close at hand with its attendant range of facilities. There are plenty of shops, bars, cafes and restaurants as well as good junior and comprehensive schools in the area. Chepstow is known as the gateway to the Wye Valley, itself a designated area of outstanding natural beauty. For those that enjoy the outdoors, there are many walks in the area including the Wye Valley Walk, which starts a short distance away at Chepstow leisure Centre and Wales coastal footpath which starts in Chepstow and follows the coastline all the way to North Wales.

For the commuter, there are excellent road networks close by plus bus and rail links to be found in Chepstow. All of which bring Newport, Cardiff, Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham within commuting distance.
