Description

This stunningly presented and spacious home is a must-see in person. The layout spans two levels, with the living area conveniently located at street level and the bedrooms on the lower floor.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a generous reception space that flows into a large open-plan kitchen and dining area, which features French doors leading to a cosy living room. Both the kitchen and living areas open up to a full-width balcony, perfect for outdoor dining during the warmer months.

A set of stairs from the reception area guide you down to the lower ground floor, where you'll discover three good sized double bedrooms, a bathroom, and a utility area. Bedrooms one and two each have access to the a full-width balcony, complete with steps leading down to a spacious decked area below.

At the front of the property, you'll find a sunny, enclosed garden as well as a single-car garage.

Situated a short walk away is the market town of Chepstow with its attendant range of facilities. There are plenty of shops, bars, cafes and restaurants as well as good junior and comprehensive schools in the area. Chepstow is known as the gateway to the Wye Valley, itself a designated area of outstanding natural beauty. For those that enjoy the outdoors, there are many walks in the area including the Wye Valley Walk, which starts at Chepstow leisure Centre and Wales Coastal Footpath which starts in Chepstow and follows the coastline all the way to North Wales.

For the commuter, there are excellent road networks close by plus bus and rail links to be found in Chepstow. All of which bring Newport, Cardiff, Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham within commuting distance.
