Description

Set in one of the most sought-after locations in the area, this impressive family home occupies the largest corner plot on this development and offers exceptional space, versatility, and potential. Enjoying a peaceful location, the property backs onto open fields with beautiful countryside and lovely walks nearby.

Situated a stones throw from the village of Mathern. Mathern itself has a nursery, a charming village pub, a village hall hosting various clubs and events and a garden centre with a well stocked shop, all of which are within walking distance. Chepstow town centre is also a short walk away, offering schools, shops, doctors, dentists, and a railway station, making it perfect for families with teenagers seeking independence. The house itself has been reconfigured from six to four large double bedrooms, providing a spacious layout ideal for growing families or multi-generational living. There are Two generous reception rooms offering flexibility and privacy. The mature, easy-to-maintain garden benefits from sunny aspects throughout the day. There is also an attached double garage and an electric car charging point.

Beyond its already generous proportions, the property offers scope for further expansion.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a substantial family home in a highly desirable and tranquil location with excellent local amenities and future potential.
