The thriving market town of Cirencester is situated within 5 miles of the house with a selection of high street stores, independent shops, cafes and restaurants along with the desirable weekly market. A selection of supermarkets Waitrose, Tesco's and Aldi. A community hospital, leisure centre and a lovely outdoor swimming pool. Nearby there is a golf course, tennis courts, horse riding, football club, rugby and cricket clubs. A selection of Primary and state secondary schools along with a sixth form college. Cirencester college and The Royal Agricultural University are all a short distance.

Great transport links with easy access to the M4 & M5, Kemble train station nearby with direct routes to London Paddington (1hr 10mins approx.) also local buses running to surrounding villages.

The privately owned airfield, now called Cotswold Airport, is a local landmark and adds a unique character to the area without disturbing the tranquillity of everyday life. On most days it operates quietly in the background, and on busier days, it can be a fascinating spot to witness small-scale aviation in action. It also has AV8 - a small restaurant which offers fresh, locally sourced food that is reasonably priced and ideally located for a quick trip out, where you can enjoy breakfast, lunch or coffee and homemade cakes. The home and surrounding area is ideal for families and pets, providing a safe environment for bringing up a family. Importantly, the airport is not open to the public every day, ensuring your peace and privacy. In fact, the presence of the airport has little to no impact on day-to-day living, allowing you to fully enjoy the serene environment that surrounds the property and nearby villages. We invite you to see for yourself just how seamlessly the charm of the Cotswolds and the nearby airport coexist, offering a unique opportunity to own a home with a little extra character.
