Finstock Road

London, W10.

Corner houses are as rare as hens teeth due to their larger gardens and wonderful light from its many aspects, and this 6 bedroom house is no exception.

Stylishly extended and refurbished this spacious home has well balanced and contemporary accommodation. The heart of every house is its kitchen, and the volume of this one is extraordinary. With its dual aspect, bespoke carpentry, large breakfast island and bifold doors onto the garden you will want to spend time here. In contrast the reception room is a calm, relaxing space with high ceilings and large bay window, offering an ideal spot to read or unwind in front of a fire. The garden enjoys morning, lunchtime and evening sunshine due to its corner location, and was landscaped to take advantage of this. Upstairs is a master bedroom with generous storage and ensuite shower room, 3 further bedrooms and a family bathroom. The house was extended in 2017 to include a lower ground floor with games/play room (including a disco glitterball), TV room, 2 further bedrooms, bathroom, storage and utility.
