Chesterton Road

North Kensington W10

A handsome four storey mid terraced Victorian house, beautifully presented and enviably located in the heart of North Kensington and Notting Hill, W10.

The present owner has created an exceptional home, having overseen a back to brick refurbishment and redesign when they purchased the property. The lower floors provide elegant and generous entertaining space, a large kitchen and south facing garden. The home retains many stunning period features that sit comfortably alongside stylish and contemporary design. The upper two floors are given over to beautifully appointed accommodation. The grand master suite is spread across the entire first floor, with the second floor above, providing the family bedrooms and bathroom. Between the floors there is a further bedroom and study, and the lower ground has the addition of a laundry and separate WC.
