Accommodation comprises: gated entrance, entrance vestibule, entrance hall, WC, dining kitchen, utility room, sitting room, home office, four bedrooms, four bathrooms.

Double garage, private courtyard garden accessed directly from the kitchen, additional private parking

DESCRIPTION

Ogleforth House has been built to the highest specification and was individually handcrafted to fit a rare city centre plot in a quiet residential enclave. Where sublime design meets cutting edge technology, no expense has been spared in creating arguably York's most exceptional contemporary townhouse just steps away from York's historic Minster.

The property is approached through secure electric gates leading to extensive garaging and additional secure private parking. The house provides space and comfort in equal measure with a superb kitchen family room opening to the well-stocked urban garden and a stunning first floor sitting room with cathedral ceiling and feature 'wall of flame' fire. There are 3 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms and an additional bedroom/office to the top floor currently used as an artist's studio. The primary bedroom occupies the entire 2nd floor and features a cathedral ceiling and 2 en suite bathrooms together with quality fitted wardrobes and vanity area.

City centre living at its very best, the principal shopping streets, bars, cafés, restaurants and theatres of York are steps away, and the mainline York Railway Station (connection to London in best time of 1hr 50 mins) is also within walking distance. Vehicular access to the major road network is also on your doorstep.
