DESCRIPTION

An elegant period town house of handsome proportions, this property provides bright and generous accommodation over 2 floors. Comprehensively renovated by a local award-winning builder, the house provides the best of modern comforts whilst retaining an abundance of character.

The ground floor has been cleverly extended and is largely free flowing with tall ceilings featuring deep cornicing. The property has been re-wired and re-plumbed with a brand new heating system and boiler and bespoke timber framed sash windows throughout.

The stylish shaker style kitchen is at the heart of this stunning renovation and showcases quartz worktops, and brand new appliances, including an AEG induction hob with downdraft extractor, fridge freezer and dishwasher. There is a contrasting central island with dining area and a dramatic roof lantern which floods the property with light. Aluminium bi-fold doors give access to a walled, south facing courtyard garden.

Upstairs there are two generous double bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom with full height ceiling, stylish wall to ceiling tiling, full size hotel style mirror and quality Villeroy and Boch fittings.

Melbourne Street is ideally placed just off Fishergate, it offers easy access to the city centre, the railway station and the university and enjoys delightful riverside walks close by.
