DESCRIPTION

Dewsbury Terrace is an unspoilt enclave of delightful period houses and is one of York's most sought after residential areas. A quiet, exclusive address it has some of the best views of the medieval walls and is just steps away from the city's extensive amenities and within easy walking distance of the railway station with many trains to London's King's Cross in under 2 hours.

This impressive double-fronted property enjoys near perfect proportions with large sash windows giving a real sense of elegance, and has been comprehensively refurbished/updated throughout. The sympathetic programme of works includes new electrics and plumbing with column radiators and a new combi boiler. There is a stylish and well-equipped shaker style kitchen with integrated appliances, a sociable island and dining area, with a separate utility room and glazed door to the rear courtyard garden with secure storage.

Balance and symmetry are at the heart of the house with a delightful central staircase and well-proportioned rooms either side, the tall ceilings and large sash windows deliver a feeling of 'grown up' space usually only found in much larger houses. There are 2 delightful double bedrooms to the first floor, the primary bedroom with a luxury ensuite with both bath and walk-in shower. A further single bedroom/study and shower room complete the accommodation.

Impeccably presented throughout, with natural seagrass, quality carpets and hardwood flooring, the property is turnkey ready and offered with no forward chain. A truly beautiful home in a charming location, the property also benefits from the most delightful garden which adjoins the grassy ramparts of the medieval city walls.
