The current owner says:

The property is within catchment to the popular Ark Primary School based in Acton Park and the house has potential to extend to the side S.T.P.P Via Ealing Council.

A wonderfully presented four double bedroom terraced period house, situated on one of Acton's premier residential roads on the peripheries of Acton/Chiswick boarder. This family home offers over 1,543 sqft (Including eaves) of accommodation with a modern and open plan kitchen/diner with patio doors leading out to a landscaped 53ft west facing private garden. The ground floor also features a large double reception room with high ceilings, period features, and a downstairs WC. The first-floor benefits from three good sized bedrooms with family bathroom. The property is a 3 minute to Acton Park and moments from the vibrant café culture of Churchfield Road which offers a great selection of boutique shops, bars and eateries. Offered to the market with no onward chain.

What's better:

A wonderful 4 bedroom family home in W3.
