The current owner says:

The house is generously proportioned over three-stories with a total floor area of 2,078 Sq. ft and offers further potential to extend on the ground floor (STPP).

This charming five-bedroom, terraced home presents in fantastic condition, and is situated on one of Acton's most desirable roads in Poets Corner.

The house is generously proportioned over three-stories, the ground floor features high ceilings throughout, a large front reception room with lovely bay windows looking onto the street at the front and garden at the rear.

The kitchen/dining room offers a great family living space, with plenty of surfaces and a large window looking out over the garden. There is also a downstairs guest loo on this floor.

On the first floor are 3 generous double bedrooms and a well-proportioned shower room.

The top floor holds a further 2 double bedrooms and a large family bathroom room as well as an extra study room / home office.

The property also benefits from genuine potential to extend on the ground floor, subject to planning permission.

There has been a lot of 'under the hood' work on the house by its current owners:

- nearly every floor and ceiling re-plastered
- high-quality long-life zinc roof
- front brickwork cleaned and restored
- under floor insulation downstairs (hanging insulation under the floor)
- the wooden floor is new and solid oak with a 40+ year life
- new electrics and pre-fitted electrics for a new kitchen
- new plumbing and high-pressure pump for good water pressure well in
