WHAT'S GREAT?

Well presented and fully modernised top-floor 2-bed apartment in central Market Harborough. Conveniently located near town and train station. Private allocated parking, modernised throughout by owner. Perfect blend of urban living, comfort, and contemporary design for those seeking a vibrant lifestyle in this popular location.

Located in the heart of Market Harborough just a short walk from the shops, bars, restaurants and the train station with direct access to London in less than an hour, this wonderful two bedroom apartment is a must see for first time buyers and investors alike. Entering through a secure entrance, the property sits on the top floor of the popular Hampton Court development. The property benefits from a dedicated entrance hall fitted with new flooring leading into the main living accommodation at the back. This large, open-plan space features both a seating and dining area alongside the stylish and contemporary kitchen which includes an integrated oven and 4 ring hob. Bedroom one is spacious and offers plenty of space whilst the second bedroom is perfectly sized for a single or home office. Finally, a recently re-fitted three piece bathroom suite completes this wonderful apartment.

Outside, an allocated off road parking space provides private parking and the building also comes with guest spaces for visitors.

SELLER'S SECRET

This apartment has been a great home for me and being so close to the train station and town has been so beneficial and convenient.

Why we like it....

This is such a great purchase for a first time buyer or investor client looking for a buy-to-let.

To buy or not to buy....
