LOCATION

The site is situated on Creca Industrial Estate, to the west of Creca village, around three miles north of the town of Annan, Dumfriesshire, in South West Scotland.

Annan, the nearest town, has an approximate population of 9,000 (2011 Census) and is situated adjacent to the River Annan on the Solway Firth. The town is accessed directly from the B721 to the West, the B722 from the North and Stapleton Road from the east which all travel from the A75 trunk road which in turns travels west to Dumfries approximately 15 miles away and east to Gretna and Junction 22 of the A74(M) approximately 9 miles away.

Carlisle is the nearest city to Annan being in the far North West of England, close to the Scottish Border and adjacent to Junctions 42, 43 and 44 of the M6 motorway. It is also on the main west coast Virgin Glasgow to London Euston rail line and has good access east to Newcastle, including Newcastle International Airport, along the A69 trunk road which is around 18 miles from Annan. Carlisle has a population of 75,306 with wider area population of 107,524 (2011 Census) being a main administrative and retail centre for Cumbria and the Borders.

Creca Business Park is situated just 2 miles from the M74 and 3 miles from the A75 and is ideally situated for quick access to the motorway network and main trunk roads.
