ANSTEY VILLAGE

Known as the Gateway to Charnwood Forest and boasting fantastic amenities in the village centre, Anstey has all that is needed in terms of food shopping, eating out, banking etc. The village still holds on to that traditional English feel with its two central greens, and hosts a number of traditional pubs and restaurants, as well as more international restaurants.

The surrounding area has such a wide variety of things to offer. Bradgate Park is host to rugged natural scenery and wildlife, childhood home of Lady Jane Grey. This park stretches above the village between the two neighbouring villages of Newtown Linford and Cropston. On the other side of the spectrum, Leicester city centre has everything a metropolitan city has to offer, from extensive shopping facilities to contemporary cuisine.

Nearest schools:

The Latimer Primary School, Anstey (0.3 miles)

Martin High School - Secondary (0.5 miles)

Woolden Hill Community Primary School (0.7 miles)

Transport links

All of the shopping and entertainment on offer in the city of Leicester is only a short journey away, and Anstey is also situated perfectly for the commuter, with the M1, A46 and A50 all very easily accessible.
