ABOUT THIS HOME

Set down a long private lane, this attached 6-bedroom unlisted character home, believed to date back to the late 1800s, has been sympathetically modernised and extended by the current owners to create a beautiful family home. The versatile layout, with its split levels, adds to the charm of this quirky residence. The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a sitting room with a log burner and bi-folding doors opening to the garden, a study off the sitting room, and a cloakroom on the entrance level. A few steps lead up to the hallway with doors to the dining room, which also features a fireplace, and in turn leads to the beautiful country-style kitchen-breakfast room with a conservatory off it. Two bedrooms and a bathroom complete this floor. The first floor boasts a double-aspect main bedroom with an en-suite on a mid-level, with a few steps up to the remaining three bedrooms and a cloakroom. The overall plot is around a third of an acre and boasts a beautifully planted and maintained garden to the rear, which is extremely private and offers plenty of shady spots to escape the sun. There is also a small area of garden to the side and front, screened with mature hedging. Additionally, there is an extensive driveway and a single garage.
