WHAT'S NEARBY

Eat & Drink

Herefordshire is famed for its local produce and boasts a vibrant foodie scene to feast within. Locally brewed ales, ciders, and cocktails mixed with tipples from local distilleries can be found in most eateries. Credenhill is only a short distance from the centre of Hereford City, where some of our favourite places include The Bookshop and their famous steak-led menu; award-winning burgers at The Beefy Boys and The Burger Shop; Instagram worthy brunches and lunches at Sensory & Rye and Rocket; and coffee and homemade cake next to the river at De Koffie Pot. You will also find the surrounding area and neighbouring villages are peppered with notable country pubs, restaurants and cafés.

Shopping

Hereford offers a mix of popular high street brands and an ever-growing number of independent shops across the town. Explore cobbled streets for hidden gems, or head to the Old Hereford Market where you will find everything in one place, including a Waitrose supermarket and Odeon cinema. There are multiple supermarkets to choose from and a Marks & Spencer Foodhall can be found in the centre of town. Whether you've got green fingers or are looking for some garden inspiration and advice, Hereford Garden Centre is just a mile down the road from Oakfields, where it also houses a café restaurant and pet shop.

Arts & Culture

Museums and attractions are abundant in Herefordshire. The Courtyard in Hereford is a centre for the arts and stages touring shows and in-house productions; Hereford Cathedral hosts notable events and exhibitions and is home of the Mappa Mundi and the Chained Library; whilst The Museum of Cider tells the tale of apples in Herefordshire. The county is also home to an impressive range of seasonal festivals and events to be enjoyed by all the family.

Health & Wellbeing

In addition to the sprawling countryside scenery, you can enjoy all manner of indoor activity. The region is well served with leisure centres, gyms and indoor activities that are never too far away. Dive into a pool at Herefordshire Leisure Centre; sign up to a beginner's climbing or bouldering course at Green Spider Climbing Centre; or treat yourself to a spa treatment at Holmer Park Health Club & Spa.

Get Outdoors

From Oakfields you can explore parish trails and the rich history of the area on foot. There is a public footpath running through the fields directly behind Oakfields where you can enjoy expansive Herefordshire views. The nearby Credenhill Park Wood is managed by the Woodland Trust and is steeped in history with a past as a Roman army depot, medieval deer park and the site of an Iron Age tribal centre. It features a range of paths, views of the Black Mountains and stunning woodland flowers; this special wildlife site is brimming with a wide range of woodland animals. You can also find geocaches in the woods to keep little ones entertained. Less than 2 miles away, The National Trust Weir Garden is a peaceful place to enjoy the picturesque River Wye, where seventy species of bird have been spotted as well as the odd otter sighting.

Education

Credenhill is home to St Mary's C of E Primary School which continues to hold a good rating. The village also sits within the catchment area of numerous high-performing high schools to include the Ofsted Outstanding St Mary's RC High School in Hereford, and Hereford Cathedral School which is an outstanding independent school for nursery to sixth form age.
