

Quoin

17 Quay street

Manchester, M3 3HN

'Make your mark

Quoin is the reincarnation of 17 Quay Street in the Deansgate Conservation Area of Manchester. Thoughtfully refurbished in new colours with critical-style glazed windows, the building blends with the listed buildings that surround it, including the Opera House and St Johns Court.

Your corner

Quoin is perfectly located in the heart of the City, nestled between two of Manchester's notable commercial and social hotspots, surrounded by the bustle, ambition and aspirations of Enterprise City and the high-end corporate occupiers of Spinningfields. Tenants can absorb the benefits of being close to start-ups, SMEs and large international corporations who are the pioneers of their industries.

The building faces Manchester Opera House and is a stone's throw from St Peter's Square, the main Metrolink hub as well as a wide range of retail and cultural facilities.

It's a short walk from a vast range of food outlets, bars, restaurants, leisure and retail facilities. The location offers easy access to many railway stations, including Deansgate and Salford Central, Victoria, Oxford Road and Piccadilly - easily accessible with the free Metroshuttle bus service.
