Charming 2-Bedroom Semi-Detached Cottage with Acreage, Stables & Manege – Idyllic Countryside Setting. Nestled in the heart of the countryside, this delightful 2-bedroom semi-detached cottage offers the perfect blend of rustic charm and modern living. Set within approximately 1.65 acres of land, this unique property is ideal for equestrian enthusiasts, smallholders, or those seeking a peaceful rural retreat.

Characterful Cottage: A beautifully presented 2-bedroom home with period features including exposed beams, wood-burning stove, and countryside views from every window. Two Bedrooms, comfortable and well-proportioned, with built-in storage and serene rural outlooks. Well-maintained pasture and paddock land, perfect for horses or other livestock.

Equestrian Facilities: Including a menage, multiple stables, and tack/feed storage. Mature landscaped gardens with patio areas and countryside views.

The tranquil Village of Fimber lies quietly at both sides of the B1251 and is settled into the hillside. It forms around the Village Pond which is presided over by the small Church on the hill which looks down over the village, access to the church is through a lovely stone archway. The Chapel built in AD 1865 is now a private dwelling and a new property in the Village has the pretty name of Cowslip Cottage.
