Cardigan provides a nostalgic setting for a thriving culture of arts and crafts, music events and festivals. Details Continued:

Currently used as a home office this versatile room offers many uses and has a door to a wetroom (with tiled floor, w/c and wash hand basin), a door to the utility room (with tiled floor, matching base and wall units, sink with drainer, an airing cupboard housing the hot water tank, wall-mounted inverter for the solar panels and the storage batteries, a door out to the front of the property, and a door to the boiler room which houses the oil fired boiler). From the dining room/home office is an open doorway into the kitchen. This is a very welcoming room, with space for a dining table, matching wall and base units, a lovely red AGA range for all your home cooking needs whilst also providing additional heat, a sink with a drainer, an integrated dishwasher and a fridge.

First Floor:

On the first floor is a spacious landing with two attic hatches, and doors off to four double bedrooms. Two rooms are currently used for the current owners' small B&B business. The first B&B room has an en-suite shower room with a corner shower and a built-in WC/wash hand basin vanity unit. The second B&B bedroom is a spacious double with built-in storage, both these bedrooms have views over the pretty rear garden. The family shower room is between these two rooms and used by the guests of the second bedroom when in use, and benefits from a corner shower, and a built-in WC/wash hand basin vanity unit. On the other side of the landing are two more double bedrooms, one of which is a very generous master bedroom with an en-suite with a corner shower, and a built-in WC/wash hand basin vanity unit.

Externally:

Accessed off a country lane there are two entrances into this property, one at the bottom of the front garden which offers ample off-road parking for around 6 cars/vehicles and leads to the useful tandem garage with space for a workshop. Outside the house is gated access onto a gravel drive which offers parking for another 2 cars. At the very top of the land is another garage, with double wooden doors and offers useful storage for a small car, bikes, kayaks etc.

The main garden is to the front with gated access onto a gravel drive, with an electric car charging point on the front of the house, next to the utility room door. To the left, as you enter the property is a detached stone barn which the current owners have restored and turned into a very useful gallery and studio. With exposed A-frame beams, a painted concrete floor, a wood-burning stove, and wooden steps up to a small mezzanine area which is ideal for storage. This space could be converted (STPP) to a useful overflow accommodation or addition to the B&B business if desired. Outside the studio is a pretty cobbled courtyard with pergola over. Paths lead onto the tiered front lawn bordered with an array of flowers and mature borders and carry on around to the side of the property where there is a small orchard. There are paths carrying on up to two useful garden storage sheds (formerly a shower and a wc but no longer in use) and onto the rear of the property. Steps lead up to a very pretty, low-maintenance garden area again planted with a stunning array of flowers and offers a lovely area to sit and enjoy the views, and a path leads down to the rear of the house where the oil tank is housed. To the very bottom of the front garden, steps lead down to the detached, purpose-built garage/workshop. This is a really useful building with a concrete floor, power and lighting and offers a great space to use as a workshop or garage.

This is a very versatile home which could be a generous-sized family home, or be utilised as a small business as the current owners have utilised it. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate.
