The picturesque coastal village of Pontgarreg, is only 1.8 miles from the ever-popular coastal village of Llangrannog, with its sandy coves and cosy village pubs, cafes, village shop and all within each reach of the Ceredigion Coastal Path in this very popular part of Cardigan Bay in West Wales. The market town of Cardigan is only 11 miles away with all the amenities of a larger town.

Access to the property is through a door into the side porch where there is ample space to store boots and coats, from here a door opens into the kitchen. This is a welcoming space, with an oil fired Rayburn at its heart which provides cooking facilities and hot water during the winter, several areas of matching modern wall and base units with work tops over, space and plumbing for a dishwasher, built in electric oven and hob with extractor over, sink and drainer, and doors off to the walk in pantry, airing cupboard, inner hall and another side porch. The airing cupboard is a spacious room with space for coats and shoes, and houses the hot water tank (in another cupboard) with immersion heater for heating the water during the summer months.

The side porch offers another access point into the property and has space for some seating, and a doorway into the hall.

The inner hall has built in original cupboards, a door into the lounge, and a door out to the utility and laundry rooms.

The laundry room has a window to the front, space to dry clothes and a door into the utility area. The utility area has a sink, space and plumbing for a washing machine, corrugated plastic roof and a door into the wood store.

Details Continued:

The wood store has a door out to the rear garden.

The lounge is a very generous sized room with a pretty bow window to the front with stained glass panels in the top sections of the windows, a fireplace with a wood burning stove sitting on a tiled hearth with brick surround and wooden mantle, and pretty, original feature stained glass windows to the side. A door from the lounge leads to the main hallway, with doors to a walk in cupboard (currently used as a walk in wardrobe) Three double bedrooms, the family bathroom and a door to steps leading up to the attic room.

Two of the bedrooms are to the front of the property with good sized picture windows offering views over the front garden and the woodland beyond, and the third bedroom

The attic room is accessed up narrow, steep steps onto a small landing area, with a door into the room which is perfect for storage, or could be converted into a fourth bedroom subject to the necessary planning/building consents.
