About The Property

Nestled in the charming rural village of Henllan, this detached house, sitting on 0.6 acres of grounds, is a true gem waiting to be discovered. Boasting two reception rooms, three bedrooms, and two bathrooms, this property offers ample space for comfortable living. Henllan is famed for its links with the woollen industry and the old railway station, which is the centre for the Vale of Teifi Railway Preservation Society, it is also home to Celtic Wines with a delightful gift shop, coffee room and adjoining garden centre. The popular market town of Newcastle Emlyn is only 3.8 miles away and offers quaint country shops, supermarkets, schools and more, and Llandysul is only 5.5 miles away. Meanwhile, the stunning beaches and coastal paths of Cardigan Bay are only a short drive away.

As you step inside, you'll be greeted by the character and charm that radiates throughout the house. Original features add a touch of elegance, while a veranda to the front invites you to relax and enjoy the surroundings.

Access to the property is through the front door into a hallway, with an understairs cupboard, stairs to the first floor and doors off to the lounge and sitting room. The lounge has a very pretty original fireplace with tiled and wood surround on a slate hearth and a woodburning stove. The sitting room has another fireplace with a wood burning stove and a door leading into the kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with matching wall and base units with wooden work top over, a ceramic 1.5 sink with drainer, a freestanding dishwasher, a "Rangemaster" electric oven and hob range with extractor over, space for a freestanding fridge/freezer, a built-in storage cupboard, space for a kitchen table, a stable door out to the garden, and steps leading up to the utility room. The utility is a practical room, with space and plumbing for a washing machine, shelving, stable door out to the side parking area, and a door into the shower room, which has a shower toilet and sink.

Details Continued:

From the landing on the first floor, doors lead to the master bedroom, with built in wardrobes and views over the garden, the family bathroom, with a bath (with electric shower over) a sink and a toilet, and to a room, which is currently used as a through room to give access to bedrooms 2 & 3. This room could be used as a home office, craft room, or with a bit of rearrangement with adding stud wall partitions it could be turned into a 4th bedroom. Bedroom 2 is a spacious single, or small double to the rear of the property with built in wardrobe, and bedroom 3 is a double, with a window overlooking the garden.

Externally:

Situated on 0.6 acres of land, the property is surrounded by an immaculate ornamental garden, a small woodland area, and a veg growing area. The main garden is found to the front and side of the property, accessed off the driveway. Paths lead up to the property and give access to the very pretty, original veranda, where you can sit, relax and enjoy the garden in any weather. The garden itself is a such a beautiful space, planted with an array of flowers, mature bushes and trees offering several areas to relax in and unwind. There are two patio areas, one outside the kitchen door, which is perfect for enjoying alfresco dining, and another to the side of the workshop, next to a small ornamental pond. The lower half of the detached split-level workshop has ample space to store wood and a workspace, perfect for DIY enthusiasts.

Additionally, a summer house in the garden offers a tranquil retreat for relaxation or entertaining. Nature lovers will appreciate the woodland area on the property, complete with steps leading down to the riverbank below. Imagine peaceful strolls along the river or picnics in the serene setting right at your doorstep. The very far side of the garden is an open lawn area which has ample space for growing veg, housing some chickens and living the good life.

Parking is a breeze with space for up to five vehicles, ensuring convenience for you and your guests. The driveway leads up to a parking space to one side and carries on to the top side of the property where there is more space for parking. Here you find access to the upper level of the detached workshop (perfect for storage or other uses), a gate to the side leading into the main garden, a door into the utility room, and a path that carries on up to the top garden area which is currently home to a greenhouse and has ample space for a small polytunnel and veg growing beds if desired.

Located in a rural village, this property offers the best of both worlds - a peaceful retreat with picturesque country walks while still being within reach of local amenities. Don't miss the opportunity to make this idyllic property your new home.
