About The Property

A detached 1920s house with a detached former garage offering overflow accommodation or annex multi-generational living potential (stpp), and original features such as encaustic tiled floors, an ornate wooden staircase, high ceilings, original doors, and fireplaces that exude character and charm. The property sits on 0.27 acres of land, ensuring privacy and tranquillity with no immediate neighbours and stunning views of the open countryside.

Blaencelyn is a small village, conveniently located just a 10-minute drive away from the picturesque Llangrannog and Cwmttydu Beaches as well as the stunning Ceredigion Coastal Path. Llangrannog is a gem of West Wales with its vibrant community, a cosy pub, cafes, and beautiful beaches, it is a lovely place to escape from the hustle-bustle of life, the village of Brynhoffnant is a short drive up the hill and has a Londis shop and petrol station and a pub. Additionally, being less than 15 miles from the historic Cardigan town, you'll have all the amenities you need within easy reach.

Entry into the property is up a couple of steps into the front porch, with encaustic tiled floors and original door into the hallway. A spacious room, the hall has a stair to the first floor and doors leading into the two reception rooms and the kitchen. The sitting room has a fireplace on a slate hearth and electric fire, and a pretty bay window to the front. The lounge is a generous sized room with a fireplace with a LPG Gas fire set within the original ornate wood and tiled surround on a slate hearth and a bay window to the front. The kitchen is the heart of this home with an oil-fired Rayburn which heats the hot water and provides extra cooking facilities, additionally it benefits from matching wall and base units with granite worktop over, fitted Neff oven and grill, space for an under counter dishwasher and a fridge/freezer, integrated fridge & freezer, stainless steel sink/drainers and an AEG induction hob.

Details Continued:

A door leads into a walk-in pantry, with base and wall units and shelving. Another door leads into the attached sunroom which is currently used as a dining room and has a door out to the side patio, perfect for some outside dining. Further doors lead into the utility room and the rear porch. The utility room has base units with space and plumbing under for a washing machine and houses the oil-fired boiler which services the central heating, and a door leads into the ground floor W/C with a wash hand basin. The rear porch gives access out the rear and side of the property and is the perfect space for storing muddy boots and beachwear.

On the first floor, off the landing, are four bedrooms, three of which are doubles, with the generous sized master also having an en-suite shower room, and a single room. A bathroom, with a bath and vanity wash hand basin and an airing cupboard housing the hot water tank and immersion heater, and a separate WC with a wash hand basin.

Externally:

The property is accessed off a country road, over its own cattle grid onto a tarmac drive. Parking will never be an issue with space for at least five vehicles. The front garden is mainly lawn, with mature hedges on the borders. Paths lead around to the sides of the property with one side leading to the sunroom and side patio, and the other side leading to the former detached garage which was converted by the previous owners, with electric storage heating in the rooms and a hot water tank with immersion heater in the airing cupboard found in the shower room. The current owners have used it as overflow accommodation in the past and currently use it as a workshop and craft space, however, subject to obtaining the necessary retrospective planning permission, this would make a lovely additional living space/annex, providing flexibility for various needs, if required.

The enclosed rear garden features a lawn area, raised vegetable beds, two timber garden sheds, various fruit trees, and a delightful patio perfect for al fresco dining or simply enjoying the fresh country air. This is a lovely space to relax and enjoy, and there is space to erect a greenhouse if needed.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to own this enchanting property that seamlessly blends classic elegance with modern comfort. A truly special place to call home.
