About The Property

This charming smallholding, sitting in around 7.8 acres, offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a tranquil countryside lifestyle.

Re-built in 1992, this modern detached farmhouse boasts 3/4 bedrooms, 2/3 reception rooms, and 2 bathrooms, making it an ideal space for a growing family. The property sits on a generous 7.8-acre plot, providing ample space for various activities and enjoying the stunning panoramic views of the surrounding mountains.

While the property may require some modernising and updating in certain areas, it presents the perfect canvas for you to create your dream family home. The rural location ensures peace and privacy, with no immediate neighbours and the property being enveloped by its own pastureland on three sides.

Set on the edge of the beautiful Preseli Mountains in Pembrokeshire, the nearby bustling village of Crymych offers the perfect mix of rural Welsh living and essential amenities, together with easy access to the larger town of Cardigan – about 15 minutes' drive away. Surrounded by some of the most beautiful scenery in West Wales, and just a short drive from the beaches of Cardigan Bay, Crymych is becoming increasingly popular with home buyers. As the main commercial centre for the surrounding villages, you'll find a range of services here, including a combined primary and secondary school.

Access to the property is through the front porch, with windows to the front and side to take in the stunning, far-reaching views and a timber red door leading into the lounge. The lounge is a generous sized room, with an oil-fired Rayburn set within an inglenook which is perfect for home baking and room heat, with a window to the front to take in the views and doors leading to the sitting room and kitchen. The sitting room, currently used and set up as a home office, has an inset wood burning stove on a slate and stone hearth, and built in office units.
