About The Property

A delightful house, with no onward chain, situated in the popular coastal town of Aberaeron, occupying a corner plot which offers ample garden space to the front, side and rear. It has lovely views over the neighbouring allotment gardens and River Aeron. Aberaeron is a beautiful coastal town popular with locals and tourists alike, conveniently situated between Cardigan and Aberystwyth on the West Wales coastal road in Cardigan Bay. It has a rich heritage and is a thriving harbour town with many attractions and modern-day conveniences, including primary and secondary schools, shops, supermarkets, pubs, restaurants, and so much more. It is also famed for its beautiful colourful Georgian houses and stunning harbour.

The property is at the end of a small cul-de-sac and offers off-road parking to the front for two vehicles, with a small carport in front of the front door. The entrance is into a porch area, with a door to a useful storage cupboard under the stairs and another door into the hallway. The hallway has more storage, stairs to the first floor, doors lead into the kitchen and living room/diner. The kitchen is fitted with matching wall and base units with a sink and drainer, with a worktop over, there is space for an electric oven (extractor fan already fitted) and under counter fridge, freezer and space and plumbing for a washing machine, a door leads out to the rear garden. The living room/diner is a spacious room with space for a dining table, double patio doors leading out to the rear patio and garden, and a gas fire.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, two of which are doubles with free-standing wardrobes, the front two bedrooms benefit from views over the neighbouring garden allotment plots and the River Aeron. The rear bedroom has views over the garden and out to the town. A family bathroom with a bath, with shower over, w/c and wash hand basin and a useful airing cupboard that houses the gas combi boiler.

Externally:

The property is approached off of Panteg Road, onto the small cul-de-sac and is found right at the bottom right-hand corner, occupying a corner plot. To the front is a lovely garden space, with a tarmac drive down the middle offering off-road parking for 2 vehicles. This parking space could be extended to the side (by removing part of the lawn area) to accommodate more cars if needed. There is a small carport over part of the drive which gives covered access to the front door. The garden continues to the side of the property, via a wooden gate, into a further lawn area, this space houses the LPG Gas tank and is bounded by a mature hedge. A path carries on to a garden shed and onto the rear garden. This area has a lovely patio outside the living room, which is a great space to relax or enjoy some outside dining, and the garden carries on to a further lawn area, with fencing and mature hedging. The property is within easy walking distance of the town and all its amenities.

As this is a corner plot, there is ample space to extend this property (STPP) if needed to create additional living space, without compromising on losing too much garden space. This is a property full of possibilities in a popular and vibrant town, viewing is essential.
