About The Property

Looking for a character-filled home with plenty of outdoor space and energy-efficient features? This three-bedroom property, with its attached former smithy, energy-efficient systems, and well-maintained garden, offers a comfortable and practical living space close to Newcastle Emlyn and the coast of Cardigan Bay in West Wales.

This charming three-bedroom property, with its unique character and attached former village smithy, offers a great balance of period features and modern conveniences. Situated in a highly convenient location just a short drive from Newcastle Emlyn and the nearby coast, this home is perfect for those looking for space, character, and practicality.

The property sits on a generous 0.33-acre plot, providing ample outdoor space, including a well-designed cat enclosure that allows pets to enjoy the outdoors safely. The home also benefits from energy-efficient features such as air source heating and solar panels, contributing to an A-rated energy efficiency—a rare and desirable feature in a property of this type.

Entering the property through the porch, there's easy access to a convenient ground-floor W/C before moving into the lounge. The lounge is a cosy space with a large inglenook fireplace, complete with a multi-fuel burning stove set on a slate hearth and a wooden beam above. This central feature creates a warm and welcoming atmosphere, perfect for relaxing in the colder months. Stairs from the lounge lead to the first floor, while a door opens into the kitchen.

Details Continued:

The kitchen is a well-equipped, functional space with matching wall and base units, topped with a wooden worktop. It includes integral Bosch fridge and freezer, as well as space and plumbing for a washing machine. The kitchen also boasts a high-end Rangemaster Professional + range with a five-ring gas hob and double electric oven, with a granite sink and drainer by Rangemaster. Exposed beams add character to the room, while a walk-in pantry provides useful storage. A door from the kitchen leads into the conservatory, which has self-cleaning glass and fitted blinds, ensuring a bright and comfortable space year-round. The conservatory opens out to the rear garden via patio doors, creating a smooth flow between the indoor and outdoor spaces.

Upstairs, the landing leads to three double bedrooms, each offering comfortable space for family living. One bedroom features an airing cupboard housing the Generation 6 Samsung Jules hot water tank and heat pump, a modern system that helps maintain energy efficiency throughout the home., and another features a built-in wardrobes and pretty views over the rear garden and surrounding countryside. A study, and the family bathroom, which is well-equipped, featuring a double shower with a Mira electric shower, a WC unit, and a wash-hand vanity unit.

Externally:
Outside, the property benefits from both front and rear access. To the front, there's access to the former smithy, a historic building with an original fireplace and a useful mezzanine area. This space could easily be adapted for a variety of uses, such as a workshop, studio, or additional storage. To the side and rear of the property, a driveway provides parking for up to four vehicles. There is also a timber shed for storage, and at the bottom of the garden, a Dunster House Log Cabin with power and lighting is ideal for a home office or additional leisure space.

The garden itself is a true highlight, featuring well-maintained lawn areas, vegetable beds, raised beds, and fruit trees. For those with a green thumb, there is also a small polytunnel and greenhouse for growing plants and produce year-round. In the middle of the garden, the cat enclosure offers a unique feature—a "Catio" that leads from the kitchen window via overhead and underground tunnels to an enclosed area, fenced using Protecta Pet fencing, comes with a pond, climbing frame, and a shed for shelter. It's a practical and thoughtful addition, ensuring that pets can enjoy the outdoors in a secure, comfortable environment.

With its combination of character, modern energy-saving features, ample outdoor space, and versatile outbuildings, this property offers great potential for a variety of uses, whether for family life, hobbies, or home working. Its location, just a short drive from Newcastle Emlyn and the coast, provides easy access to local amenities, schools, and transport links.
