About The Property

This characterful Victorian townhouse, located in the heart of Cardigan, showcases timeless red brick charm with its striking bay-fronted façade and mosaic-tiled entrance. The home delivers a comfortable balance of period features and practical updates, making it ideal for those seeking something with character but ready to accommodate modern living.

Stepping through the canopied front door leads into a hallway that sets the tone for the rest of the property. The hallway features the original staircase leading to the upper floor and opens to the main living space. The lounge and dining area benefit from generous proportions, with natural light streaming through the bay window at the front. High ceilings add to the room's sense of character, creating a versatile area for relaxing or entertaining.

Toward the back of the house lies the kitchen, offering a functional workspace with a range of base and wall units, a freestanding gas range, and a sink set beneath a window overlooking the garden. The kitchen is enhanced by an inglenook-style fireplace surround, lending a traditional feel to the space. Adjacent is a practical utility room with extra storage, a sink, and plumbing for a washing machine, alongside access to the enclosed rear garden.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing provides access to three bedrooms and the family bathroom. The master bedroom stands out for its spacious layout, featuring another bay window that mirrors the elegant façade of the house. The second and third bedrooms are well-proportioned, offering flexibility as sleeping quarters, a home office, or hobby spaces. The family bathroom is functional and includes a bath with an overhead shower, a basin, and a toilet.

Outside, the property benefits from two easily maintained garden spaces. At the front, a compact gravelled area complements the house's attractive exterior. To the rear, the enclosed garden features gravel and a solid garden shed, with double doors opening onto rear access – a practical feature for storing bikes or other equipment.

With its blend of characterful features and functional spaces, this townhouse offers an appealing option for those looking to enjoy the convenience of town-centre living while still appreciating period charm.
