The approach to the property is charming, with traditional slate steps leading up through a gently sloping front garden enclosed by iron railings. Upon entering, the front door opens into the main hallway. From here, doors lead to the open-plan lounge and dining area, a space that’s bathed in natural light from a bay window to the front and a rear window overlooking the patio. The views of Cardigan Castle and Castle Green from the front window add a truly picturesque touch to everyday living.

The kitchen has been tastefully updated and features a modern design. Equipped with matching base units, an electric hob with a built-in oven, and a sink with a drainer, it also benefits from a Velux window that draws in light from above. Upstairs, the property offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a thoughtfully designed bathroom. The front bedroom boasts a bay window that frames wonderful views of the castle and estuary, giving it a unique and appealing feature. The second bedroom, positioned at the side of the home provides a quieter space with views over the garden. The bathroom, accessed via a step down from the landing, is equipped with a shower over the bath, a wash hand basin, a W/C, and a frosted window for privacy.

To the rear of the house, the outdoor space offers a great mix of practicality and potential. Steps lead up to a concrete area that’s perfect for outdoor enjoyment, and there’s space to park a vehicle accessed via a private lane running behind the row of houses.
