About The Property

Looking for a beautifully presented farmhouse with income potential and plenty of land? This impressive six-bedroom property, set in around 8 acres of picturesque countryside, offers a fantastic combination of residential comfort and commercial opportunities. With existing B&B suites, stables, and outbuildings, it's an ideal setting for equestrian enthusiasts, small-scale farming, or those seeking a spacious family home with business potential.

Tucked away in the heart of the Teifi Valley, this exceptional farmhouse offers an opportunity to embrace rural living while enjoying modern comforts and income potential. The property is set in approximately 8.5 acres of scenic countryside, with stunning far-reaching views. With well-maintained paddocks, mature tree lines, and a selection of outbuildings, it is well-suited for equestrian pursuits, livestock grazing, or small-scale farming.

The farmhouse itself has been thoughtfully refurbished and extended over the years to create a welcoming and versatile living space. The heart of the home is a spacious and well-equipped kitchen, featuring modern fitted units, space for a range cooker, and a large larder cupboard and an integral dishwasher. The adjoining snug, complete with a solid fuel Rayburn range, offers a warm and characterful space. The dining room retains its period charm with a stone fireplace housing a multi-fuel stove and exposed ceiling beams could also be used as a bedroom.

A standout feature of the property is the generously sized living room. With patio doors leading to a sun terrace and BBQ area, it provides an excellent space for relaxing and entertaining. For those looking for additional leisure space, the former bar and restaurant has been reconfigured into a fantastic family/entertainment room or additional lounge, offering great flexibility.

Continued ;
The property benefits from six well-proportioned bedrooms, including two external-access B&B suites that could serve as self-contained annexes (subject to consent). These suites have been tastefully finished, featuring vaulted ceilings, tiled flooring, and modern en-suite bathrooms. The remaining bedroom on the first floor are well-sized, with one enjoying panoramic views over the valley and also has an-ensuite bathroom.

Externally:
Beyond the main house, the property boasts a selection of well-maintained outbuildings, including a stable block, hay barn, and open-fronted barn. There is also a garage/workshop, ideal for storage or hobby use. The land has been divided into nine manageable paddocks, offering excellent natural shelter from mature oak and beech hedgerows.

For those looking to work from home or explore further commercial opportunities, additional spaces include a log cabin currently used as a home office and a gym area. There is also a vegetable and fruit-growing area, perfect for self-sufficient living.

Despite its rural position, the property remains conveniently located. Nearby towns such as Lampeter and Tregaron provide essential amenities, while Carmarthen, the M4 motorway, and national rail networks are within easy reach. A public footpath runs through the driveway of the property, adding to its connection with the surrounding countryside.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a property that seamlessly blends lifestyle, business potential, and rural charm. Whether as a spacious family home, a guest house, or an equestrian facility, this farmhouse offers endless possibilities in one of the most stunning countryside settings available.
