About The Property

Tucked along a quiet country road not far from the sea, this 2 bedroom apartment is part of a characterful barn conversion that blends the charm of original stonework with the comfort of modern touches. This first-floor, two-bedroom property benefits from rare off-road parking and direct level access, making life that bit easier whether coming and going with shopping or settling in for the long term, along with plenty of parking and an enclosed garden.

From the parking area, a short walkway leads to the front door, which opens into the front porch area that is also used as a utility room with a washing machine and tumble dryer, there's room for storage and even a place to shake off sandy shoes after a walk along the nearby coastal path.

Inside, the apartment is laid out across one level, with a central hallway connecting all rooms. There's a useful airing cupboard housing the gas-fired boiler, plus another deep storage cupboard with double doors.

The standout feature is the open-plan living/kitchen/dining area – a light-filled space thanks to windows on three sides. The kitchen section has a classic farmhouse feel, with a range of base and wall units, and a central island that doubles as a prep zone and breakfast bar. Built-in appliances include a Range Master style electric and gas cooker with multiple ovens and a large hob, an integral fridge-freezer, and dishwasher, and an extractor hood. And the sink is set beneath the window,

The kitchen flows naturally into the dining area, where there's plenty of room for a good-sized table and chairs. Beyond that, the living area easily takes a family-sized sofa setup, without feeling cramped.

Both bedrooms are doubles. The master bedroom, facing east, looks out across the front garden and parking area and features mirrored built-in wardrobes. The second bedroom is west-facing, catching the late afternoon light, and would work well as a guest room or a home office.

The bathroom is finished with floor-to-ceiling tiling in a clean, neutral palette. It includes both a curved bath and a separate walk-in shower, as well as a vanity unit, WC, and generous storage cupboard.

Outside, there is a decked area that flows onto the garden and the patio area is a perfect area to sit catching the morning and early afternoon sun, there is an additional lawn area, with flowers, and shrubs around the borders, and off-road parking for over 4 cars. It's a versatile outdoor space with plenty of room to enjoy alfresco dining, a barbeque or a morning coffee before heading down to the beach.

Offered with a 999-year lease commencing from 2000, some of the fixtures and fittings may be available via separate negotiation, this spacious apartment is well-suited to those looking for a weekend base near the coast, a lock-up-and-leave holiday let, or a practical option for a home.
