Externally:

The park is approached through a barrier gated entrance off a minor country lane, into its own grounds, where the drive carries on to the caravans and their own individual parking spaces. The side of the caravan has a decked area installed. There is typically space around the caravan pitch where the owner can sit, relax, and take in the stunning surroundings. And there is parking nearby. Could this be your perfect beachfront retreat?

About the holiday park
Escape to the coast:

Positioned next-door to the Teifi Boat Club, perfect for boating enthusiasts. A short walk, or drive, up the coast sits the Cliff Hotel Restaurant & Spa with fabulous, elevated views of Poppit Sands and Cardigan Island. The hotel offers luxurious spa treatments and is popular for this reason and their Sunday roasts and evening meals. Next door to that is The Flat Rock Bistro, which also offers great meals all year round and a championship golf course at Cardigan Golf Club is close by.

A family-owned leisure park, with spectacular views. Nestled on the edge of the Teifi River estuary, overlooking Cardigan Bay, with views of Poppit Sands and the Pembrokeshire National Park, this park offers an unmatched picturesque setting. If you're looking for exceptional views, it doesn't get much better than this!

This exclusive location is the obvious choice for holiday homeowners and holiday guests that love to holiday by the coast and enjoy the great outdoors. Creating precious memories by the sea with your loved ones is what holidaying is all about. Whether you're looking to simply relax and take in the stunning scenery or are looking to explore everything West Wales has to offer, you can do it all when you holiday here. Bringing your four-legged best friend? No problem, we've got pet friendly accommodation for you to choose from.

When you own a holiday home at this park, it's like owning your very own slice of paradise. Having the freedom and flexibility to escape to your very own home-from-home whenever the mood takes you, opens up a whole new lifestyle for you to enjoy. If you're seeking a relaxing coastal retreat with outstanding views, then look no further.
