About The Property

Looking for a home with character and outstanding views? This three-bedroom house in St Dogmaels offers flexible accommodation, an attached garage, and an elevated rear garden with far-reaching outlooks across the Abbey ruins, the village, and countryside beyond.

Set in the sought-after village of St Dogmaels in Pembrokeshire, this end of terrace three-bedroom home offers a combination of practical living spaces and outstanding views over the historic Abbey ruins and the village below. With an attached garage, flexible accommodation and a generous rear garden set on elevated tiers, the property presents plenty of scope for a variety of lifestyles.

Accessed from a narrow country lane, the front porch is ideal for storing boots and coats before entering the kitchen. The kitchen itself is fitted with modern wall and base units, an eye-level Bosch oven and grill, Millar gas hob with extractor, integrated Bosch dishwasher and fridge, a sink with drainer, and a breakfast bar. Steps lead down into the living room, which centres around a fireplace with gas fire and offers access to the utility room and front hall.

The front hall provides a useful under stairs cupboard, a door to the front of the house, and sliding door into a sitting room (currently used as a ground floor double bedroom.) This room, complete with fireplace and gas fire. The utility room has a sink, space and plumbing for a washing machine, a door leading out to a small outside area, and access through to both the attached garage and a rear WC. To the other side of the utility is an additional WC and a door leading to the steps which rise to the garden.

Details Continued:
On the first floor, the split landing provides access to two double bedrooms at the front, one with a built-in cupboard and the other with fitted wardrobes. Both have fitted wash hand basins and enjoy open views across the fields and down towards the Abbey ruins and village below. To the rear, there is a single room which could be ideal as a child’s bedroom or home office, along with the family shower room fitted with a double shower, WC, and wash hand basin.

Externally:
Externally, the front of the property has a gravel and paved area with a flower bed, providing a pleasant space to sit and enjoy the outlook. There is also the potential to level this space to create parking for a small car. The attached garage provides further parking or workshop space, with power, light, a water tap, and concrete floor.

The rear garden, reached by steps built into the retaining wall with handrails, is set over tiered levels with lawns, paved areas, raised beds, a greenhouse (perfect for growing your own veg), garden shed, and a small pond. From here, the views take in open countryside, the Abbey ruins, the village itself, and even glimpses of the estuary of the Afon Teifi. The original roof has recently been replaced, and while some aspects may benefit from updating, the property provides a solid home in an attractive location.

This is a home that offers practicality with a sense of history and character, combined with an enviable position overlooking one of Pembrokeshire's most attractive villages on the edge of Cardigan Bay in West Wales.

OTHER COSTS TO BE AWARE OF WHEN PURCHASING A PROPERTY:

LAND TRANSACTION TAX (LTT): You may need to pay this if you buy property or land in Wales, this is on top of the purchase price. This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website <https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator>.

BUYING AN ADDITIONAL PROPERTY: If you own more than one residential property, you could be liable to pay a higher rate of Land Transaction Tax (sometimes called Second-Home Land Transaction Tax). This will vary on each property and the cost of this can be checked using the Land Transaction Tax Calculator on the Gov.Wales website <https://www.gov.wales/land-transaction-tax-calculator> - we will also ensure you are aware of this when you make your offer on a property. Also, properties in our areas are subject to higher rates of Council Tax for additional/second homes. Please ensure you check with the local authority provider as to what this will be prior to making an offer.

MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS - PROOF OF ID AND PROOF OF FUNDS: As part of our legal obligations to HMRC for Money Laundering Regulations, the successful purchaser(s) will be required to complete ID checks to prove their identity. Documents required for this will be a valid photo ID (e.g. Passport or Photo Driving Licence) and proof of address (e.g. a recent Utility Bill/Bank Statement from the last 3 months). Proof of funds will also be required, including any bank or savings statements from the last 3 months & a mortgage agreement in principle document, if a mortgage is required. Please ensure you have these in place at the point you make an offer on a property so as to save any delays.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX: If you are selling an additional property, or a property with land, you may be liable to pay Capital Gains on the gains made on the property. Please discuss this with an accountant to find out if any tax will be liable when you sell your home. More information can be found on the Gov.UK website here - <https://www.gov.uk/capital-gains-tax>

SOLICITORS/SURVEYORS/FINANCIAL ADVISORS/MORTGAGE APPLICATIONS/REMOVAL FIRMS ETC - these also need to be taken into consideration when purchasing a property. Please ensure you have had quotes ASAP to allow you to budget. Please let us know if you require any help with any of these.
