About The Property

Contemporary Four-Bed Home with Countryside Views in Llanllwni.

Looking for a modern family home with countryside views and flexible living space?

This executive-style property in Llanllwni offers underfloor heating throughout, multiple en-suites, a sunroom with panoramic views, and a balcony overlooking open fields, all within easy reach of Carmarthen, Lampeter, and the stunning landscapes of Cardigan Bay and West Wales.

Accessed off the main A485 within the 20mph limit, the property is approached through a pillared entrance onto a private tarmac driveway, providing ample parking for multiple vehicles and leading to an integral garage. The front garden includes a neat lawn, with gated access on both sides leading to the rear, all enclosed by stone walling, beech hedging, and fencing, creating a tidy and well-kept first impression.

Inside, the house feels modern, warm, and well thought-out. Natural wood flooring flows throughout much of the ground floor, complemented by underfloor heating on the ground and first floors. The hallway includes a staircase with storage beneath and access to the ground floor WC, study, lounge, and kitchen/diner. The study at the front enjoys a lovely bay window, offering flexibility as a home office, playroom, or additional bedroom if required.

The lounge is a generous, comfortable space with double doors opening into the dining area and another set leading into the sunroom, helping to connect the main living areas seamlessly. The sunroom is a standout feature — bright and glass-fronted with panoramic views across open countryside and the distant hills, giving a real sense of space and connection to nature. Two sets of sliding patio doors open onto a balcony where the same far-reaching outlooks can be appreciated, an ideal spot for outdoor dining or morning coffee.

Details Continued:

The kitchen/diner forms the heart of the home — a large, sociable space designed for both cooking and gathering. Fitted with modern wall and base units, a central island with ceramic five-ring hob and extractor, eye-level double ovens, built-in fridge, freezer, and dishwasher, and a sink with drainer, the kitchen offers everything needed for easy day-to-day living. Tiled flooring continues through to the utility room, which provides additional storage, sink, and direct access to both the side of the property and the integral garage.

The garage features an electric up-and-over door, storage cupboards housing the heating systems and underfloor heating manifolds, and space for practical use or hobbies.

Upstairs, the spacious landing has a useful storage cupboard and pull-down ladder access to the boarded loft, with attic trusses already in place should anyone wish to convert upwards in future. There are four double bedrooms, three of which enjoy their own en-suite shower rooms with modern combination vanity units. The master bedroom also benefits from a dressing room fitted with built-in wardrobes. Completing the first floor is the family bathroom, featuring both a jacuzzi bath and separate shower, again finished with a combination vanity unit.

Externally:

The rear garden is securely fenced and easily accessed from either side of the house, from the utility room, or via the balcony. A flight of steps leads down to the lawned area, which overlooks open fields and offers plenty of outdoor space. Below the balcony is a particularly useful basement divided into two rooms — dry, secure, and ideal for use as a workshop, hobby area, or storage for outdoor gear and garden tools.

The balcony and paved patio area together create excellent spaces for entertaining or simply enjoying the rural surroundings. The rear aspect captures the essence of semi-rural living, with far-reaching countryside views that make this home feel peaceful yet connected.

A contemporary family home with flexible space, well-finished interiors, and generous accommodation, this Llanllwni property is a strong choice for those wanting comfort and practicality within reach of the coast and countryside of Cardigan Bay and West Wales.
