Arlington Road

Description

Measuring 1,517 sq ft (140.9 sq m), this impressive first-floor apartment is set within the renowned Glass Building, designed by acclaimed architect Piers Gough of CZWG.

Accessed via a striking Japanese-inspired water garden, the apartment enjoys four full-height floor-to-ceiling windows/doors overlooking the tranquil feature. The generous living space runs the full depth of the property, thoughtfully zoned to create distinct areas for sitting, dining, kitchen and study.

The principal bedroom overlooks the water garden to the rear and benefits from excellent storage, a contemporary en-suite bathroom and even a private sauna. A second double bedroom, also with en-suite, is positioned at the front.

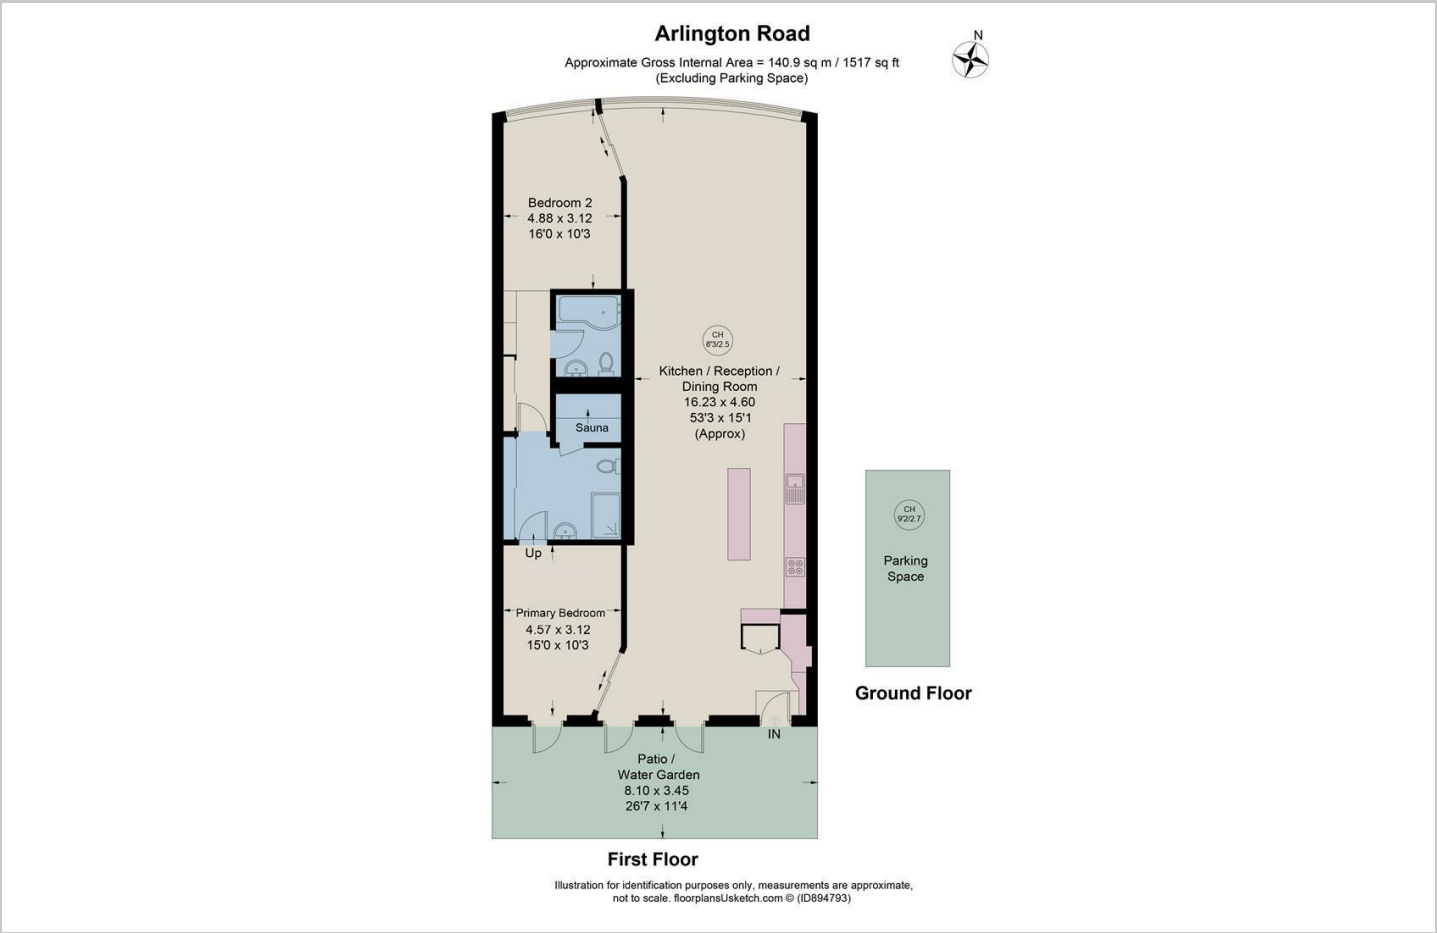

Additional features include underfloor heating, LED lighting, an integrated home entertainment system and a designated parking space. The property has been meticulously maintained, offering both comfort and modern convenience.
