

Step into a life of both grandeur and practicality with this charming Victorian residence, ideal for families and those desiring the convenience of multi-generational living. Unlisted and boasting a riveting dual-aspect view of the River Stour, this property provides a perfect blend of character and spacious accommodation across four generous levels.

Enviably positioned within a short walk from the Riverfront and the local railway station, this home is set on a plot nearing a quarter of an acre. Each of the five sumptuous bedrooms offers tranquillity and space, with two featuring their own private en-suites. In addition, two further bathrooms ensure that every family member's needs are catered for without the morning rush.

The heart of the home is the dual-aspect sitting room, complete with a Juliet balcony and an elegant marble fireplace. It's a space that invites relaxation and social gatherings alike. Adjacent to this, the kitchen/dining room is an epicurean's delight, featuring an inviting island and ample room for family feasts and informal get-togethers.

For those with an entrepreneurial spirit, the lower ground floor presents an exceptional opportunity. Currently integrated with the main house, offering a kitchen, bedroom, bathroom and sitting room (currently used as a workshop) it can transform into a self-contained apartment, perfect for hosting an airbnb, thereby providing a potential additional income stream.

Outdoors, the west-facing tiered walled garden offers a private sanctuary for al fresco dining or simply unwinding amid nature. A detached workshop ensures hobbyists and garden enthusiasts have a dedicated space for their passions, while the expansive driveway accommodates numerous vehicles, providing both convenience and security.

This property is not just a house; it's a versatile home with endless possibilities, waiting for a family to start its next chapter.
