Manningtree

Step into the realm of homeownership with this charming two-bedroom mid-terrace house, an idyllic first purchase for those stepping onto the property ladder, and ideal for those seeking a peaceful abode in a picturesque and central location. Perfectly positioned within a leisurely stroll of the vibrant heart of Manningtree, this delightful property benefits from a plethora of local amenities right on your doorstep, from cosy pubs and tantalising restaurants to a variety of shops catering to all your needs.

Upon entering, you're welcomed by an inviting hallway leading to a spacious and bright living room, ideal for unwinding after a long day. The stylish and functional kitchen with chestnut worktops, built-in appliances, and double stove awaits your culinary exploits, whilst upstairs, two well-proportioned bedrooms create a peaceful retreat.

The main bedroom stands out, boasting a chic, free-standing bath, blending relaxation with private luxury. Additionally, a separate shower room caters to the practicalities of daily life.

The property benefits from a light aspect all around and large open skies with views down to the estuary and River Stour from the front bedroom. There is an overview of lush green gardens from the back windows, and not overlooked, the house emanates a sense of peace and privacy.

Outside, the quaint courtyard garden promises tranquil moments in the open air. There is a back cottage door entrance and access from Norman Road (useful for taking bicycles or leaving muddy boots after walks). In addition, two dry outside storage units. The front garden is home to mature roses, horned flowers, and lavender, with a cottagey feel, with an original doorstep and glass panelling. Embrace the ease of town living with this delightful property.
