

Holbrook Road, Stutton

Step into a delightful blend of period charm and contemporary living with this splendid 1930s, bay-fronted semi-detached residence, commanding an overall plot approaching 0.25 acre (STS).

Upon entering, you're greeted by an inviting hallway, leading to a cosy living room where a traditional log burner awaits, as well as a characteristic bay window. To the rear, a sizeable dining room offers versatility, doubling as a study space for those work-from-home days, seamlessly integrating productivity with domestic bliss. The kitchen holds the promise of warm meals and family gatherings.

Upstairs are three bedrooms, two of which are generous doubles. The family bathroom is a sanctuary in its own right, featuring a separate bath and shower to cater to all your pampering needs.

Outside, the large driveway provides ample off-road parking for several vehicles, while the generous rear garden, framed by breathtaking field views, serves as a canvas for your horticultural dreams or a safe haven for children's play.
