LOCATION:

Brantham is a large village in the Stour Valley with a population of more than 2,300. The river forms one of its boundaries and it is surrounded by picturesque countryside including the villages of Stutton, Tattingsstone, East Bergholt and Flatford (famous for inspiring many paintings of John Constable and known as Constable Country).

Manningtree, reputedly the smallest market town in England, lies across the River Stour and its railway provides fast links to London, Norwich, the ports of Harwich and Felixstowe, and the beautiful beaches of the Sunshine Coast.

Brantham is fortunate to have many amenities including, churches, pubs, a local food store, a cafe, vets, three play areas, two preschools and a primary school.
