In Detail

Elegant and airy, this spacious one bedroom conversion boasts fantastic transport links and access to a beautifully maintained shared garden.

Bathed in natural light, the property showcases a generously sized double bedroom, a well proportioned separate kitchen, and a larger than average tastefully renovated four piece bathroom. The bright reception room, new flooring, and newly installed double glazed windows add to the appeal, with access to a spacious shared garden that offers a peaceful outdoor retreat.

Located on a quiet residential street just moments from Old Kent Road, the property benefits from excellent local bus routes that provide swift access into the City, while Queens Road Peckham Station is within easy reach, offering both London Overground and mainline services. London Bridge, Borough Market, and Bermondsey Street are all easily accessible, making commuting and exploring the city effortless.

The surrounding area is rich in amenities, featuring popular eateries such as Blackbird Bakery and Kudu, alongside a variety of independent cafés, bars, and shopping options. With creative hubs like Peckham Levels and the Bussey Building just around the corner, this location perfectly balances convenience with a vibrant community atmosphere.
