A substantial four bedroom detached family home found directly opposite Hove Park.

This beautiful home is found in this extremely sought-after residential location adjacent to Hove Park, which provides an abundance of family friendly activities, tennis courts, children's park and popular café. The property's prime Hove location also means you're within close proximity to Hove station, as well as providing easy access to the A23/A27 transport links making the property ideal for families and commuters alike.

The property offers spacious and well proportioned rooms throughout with the accommodation briefly comprising of a generously sized bay-fronted living room to the front, dining room with doors providing access out onto the rear garden, separate kitchen running parallel with utility room and shower room set off and W.C completing the ground floor accommodation.

On the first floor all four bedrooms are found along with the family bathroom, with all bedrooms benefiting from being a good size double bedrooms. A private balcony accessed off the first floor landing boasts beautiful views across Hove Park.

Outside, to the front, the property is nicely set back from the road and enjoys a large blocked paved driveway enabling several vehicles to be parked, which in turn leads to integral garage.

The rear garden is of a fantastic size, being mainly laid to lawn with mature tress, boards and shrubbery providing a degree of seclusion and privacy.
