Brighton, BN1 1JG

Guide price £400,000 - £425,000

Freehold

Guide Price: £400,000 - £425,000 A beautifully unique, two bedroom mews property, situated in the midst of Brighton's vibrant South Lanes.

Set within a small mews development and being sold with no onward chain, the property is well presented throughout and serving the ground floor, the living and dining room provides a comfortable space to relax. The modern fitted kitchen is conveniently equipped with integrated appliances. Ascending upstairs, you will find two double bedrooms with built-in wardrobe space, along with a contemporary family bathroom. Outside, there is generously sized communal paved courtyard is of the favoured westerly aspect.

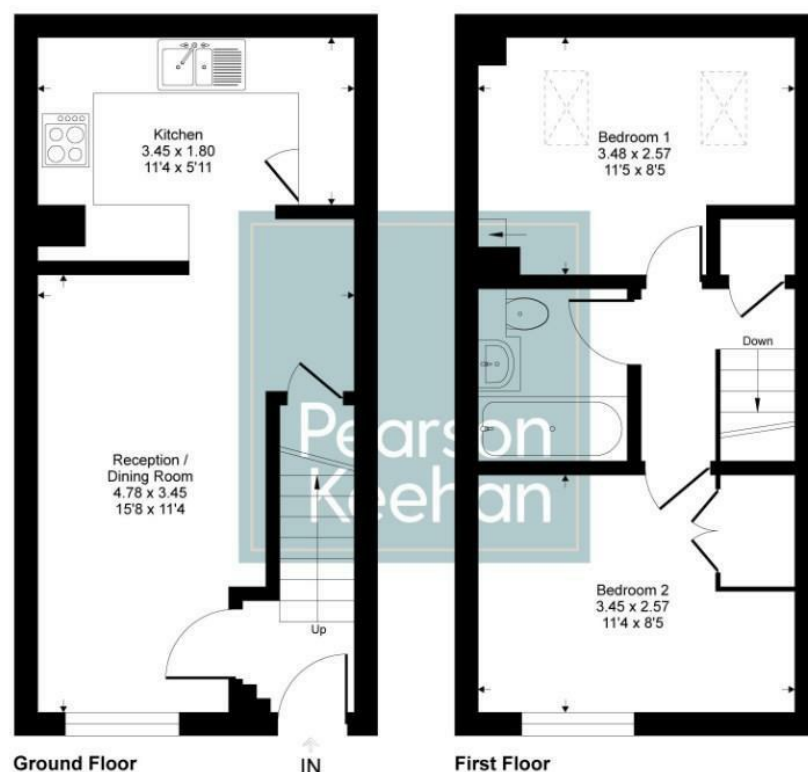

The property boasts a prime location, with close proximity to Brighton seafront and the city centre. The property is just moments from a plethora of local amenities, trendy bars and eateries that the South Lanes has to offer, providing an ideal urban lifestyle. Brighton Railway Station and a number of bus links are just a short distance away, providing seamless links to elsewhere in the South East.

A rarity to find a freehold house in the heart of the city centre, the property could suit a number of buyers including working professionals looking for a city dwelling, a pied-a-terre, a second home near the coast or ideal holiday let investment property.
