Summary

Excellent and manageable development opportunity located centrally in Ramsey within a short walk to the town centre, beach and local schools.

Currently occupying a generous plot, Tunis is a three Bed detached property that has gradually deteriorated over recent years, and is now encountering some structural defects. As a consequence, it presents an opportunity for cash buyers and developers to bring the property back to its former glory, or subject to obtaining the relevant permissions, replacing the existing dwelling with a large family home, semi detached properties or perhaps an apartment block.

The plot measures approximately 14 metres wide by 29 metres deep with a total plot size of 401 square metres, and backs onto the existing Tesco car park.

Viewings are strictly by appointment only.
