UNEXPECTEDLY BACK TO MARKET**

8 Blackdales Avenue is a traditional mid terraced house situated in a quiet cul de sac on the popular south side of Largs, close to the town centre and seafront. This property although requiring some modernisation and redecoration will make an ideal home for a first time buyer or a family so we encourage early viewing as it is anticipated this property will be popular. This super home offers a spacious lounge with bay window leading to a large dining kitchen. Upstairs there is a roomy master bedroom, a second bedroom and shower room. Outside there is an easily maintained garden with access to a lane. Largs town centre with its range of shops, cafes and restaurants is within walking distance. Transport links are also close by.

This affordable home includes gas central heating, double glazing and has a partially floored attic for possible conversion.

On street parking.
