10 Hawthorn Road, Sutton, SM1 4PF

Welcome to this charming four-bedroom semi-detached Windebank house, a perfect blend of historical charm and modern living. Located in a highly sought-after area of Sutton (Carshalton Beeches border), this beautifully maintained property offers spacious accommodation with an open plan, extended, modern kitchen/diner, exquisite period features, and a prime location.

Windebank homes were known for their craftsmanship, attention to detail, high ceilings and use of high-quality materials. They often featured designs that were in keeping with the architectural trends of the times, such as the Arts and Crafts movement. The property was built in 1908 and combines historical elegance with contemporary comforts such as a utility room, downstairs spacious cloakroom, separate lounge and modern family bathroom. The airy kitchen/diner/family room opens out onto a landscaped contemporary patio area with steps up to a well maintained lawned garden.
