Internally you step into the hall which leads to the lounge to the front and the stairs to the first floor. The spacious lounge provides ample space to host family and friends and provides access to the modern kitchen, which is galley style but offers space for a dining table and chairs. There is an extension to the rear of the property which could be utilised in multiple ways with the bifold doors opening up onto the rear,

To the first floor there are three double bedrooms, something which is particularly unique for this kind of property. The first floor is completed by the white four piece suite family bathroom.

Externally to the front the property itself offers off road parking for at least two cars. There is a private alleyway through to the rear which offers a patio area and turf laid to lawn.
