David Davies Sales & Lettings are delighted to welcome to the sales market this beautiful, well presented three bedroomed semi detached property, on Grange Valley in the heart of Haydock.

The property has been completely modernised throughout and briefly comprises; spacious living room, through to the open planned brand new kitchen diner which incorporates integrated appliances including oven. Onto the rear of the property is the large conservatory which overlooks the private rear garden.

To the first floor the landing provides access to two generous double bedrooms and a single bedroom. The bedroom to the rear has stunning farmland views also. The recently renovated shower room completes this floor.

To the front of the property is a driveway for at least two cars so no need to worry about off road parking.

To the rear is a large flagged area, perfect for hosting family and friends in those summer months. Additionally there is a detached garage for all your storage needs and the benefit of an additional piece of land with turf laid to lawn. This land is leasehold and can only be accessed by this property, it is available at a small yearly cost but would be well worth it for the additional space.

This stunning home is close to local amenities and is in an excellent location for commuters. It has easy access to the East Lancashire Road and the M6
