Location

The thriving North London Borough of Islington extends from Farringdon, the UK's Creative and Tech Hub in the south, up to Highgate in the north, incorporating the ever expanding office district of Kings Cross. It is an established borough that is home to prosperous residential and commercial centres with a diverse population of 236,000 people.

The building is situated opposite the Finsbury Park bus, underground and rail interchange. It is a 200 metre walk to the new Finsbury Park underground and National Rail station entrance accessed via the impressive City North development.

Finsbury Park offers direct access to London's West End, The City, King's Cross, Farringdon, London Bridge, most of London's major rail hubs and many commuter towns such as Peterborough and Cambridge.
