Location

The building occupies a prominent position moments from Chancery Lane underground station. The Law Society and the Royal Courts of Justice are in close proximity making this location popular with legal occupiers, as well as being located within walking distance of Farringdon, meaning it can be a great option for creative occupiers.

Public Transport links are excellent with Chancery Lane (Central Line), Temple (District, Circle Lines) and Farringdon (Circle, Hammersmith & City, Thameslink and Elizabeth Line) all within a short walking distance. Numerous bus routes from Fleet Street and Chancery Lane offer links across to the City and West End.
