the best of both inside and outside living spaces.

An immediate sense of stylish and modern living is apparent from the moment you walk through the front door. Split over three levels of living accommodation, this home provides an abundance of surprise and detail.

When walking through the front door you are drawn through into the kitchen/living/dining room which has floor to ceiling windows to allow for an abundance of natural light to come pouring through. The bespoke solid maple kitchen is dressed in granite work surfaces to reflect the light. All integrated appliances and excellent finishes add to the high-end design. To complete the ground floor is a spacious office, perfect for those wanting to work from home, as well as a versatile utility, cloakroom, and garage access.

With a well-planned layout and impeccable interior design, the vaulted sitting room on the first floor lends itself to relaxing and entertaining, with simply stunning views of the tranquil meadows. The room is serviced by a kitchenette and gas fire for those who just want to take time out. A Bang & Olufsen sound system has been internally wired across the house, servicing both living areas as well as the family bathroom. The adjacent master bedroom benefits from a beautiful Juliet balcony, built in wardrobes and a fabulous modern en suite.

This finish moves to the main family bathroom, with a double ended bath and family sized shower. Two other double bedrooms are found on this floor along with access to the third floor.

The top floor benefits from a double bedroom that spans the length of the house, with an abundance of storage in the eaves. With a beautiful en suite bathroom lined with Italian tiles and a free standing bathtub, this floor can be made private. The door leading off the landing takes you into a versatile area prior to ascending the stairs.

The outside does not disappoint.
